

Gambling Act 2005

Responsible Authorities

Applications for licences under the Gambling Act 2005 must be sent to the Trading Standards & Licensing Section (as the relevant licensing authority).

The Act states that a notice outlining brief details of your application must also be sent to the responsible authorities listed below. However the Trading Standards & Licensing Section will arrange for this to be done electronically on your behalf.

If your application has a plan of the premises attached to it, and that plan is larger than A3 in size then we ask that you send 3 x copies of this document to the Trading Standards & Licensing Section.

- (1) The relevant licensing authority;
- (2) The Commission
- (3) The chief officer of police for the area in which the premises are situated;
- (4) The fire authority for the area in which the premises are situated;
- (5) The local planning authority for the area in which the premises are situated;
- (6) The environmental health authority for the area in which the premises are situated;
- (7) The health and safety authority for the area in which the premises are situated;
- (8) The body recognised as being responsible for protection of children from harm for the area in which the premises are situated;
- (9) Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs and Excise.

The contact details for all responsible authorities including the Trading Standards & Licensing Section are outlined below should you require them. However we would prefer it if you did not send copies of your application to the authorities (2)-(9) and allow us to do this on your behalf.
