

Request

Wigan Housing have previously provided lists of their non- traditional housing stock to publicly available websites. On the list there is a construction abbreviation SPN. Please confirm the construction method SPN and why it is regarded as non-traditional build.

Response

SPN is an abbreviation for Spooner.

Spooner Timber Framed flats were construction constructed with an internal structural timber frame and external brick skin, which we deem as non-traditional.