

Request

Please could you tell me whether there are any asylum seekers being accommodated in hotels your local authority area? To be clear, I am not asking you to provide any information that would directly identify or reveal the specific address or ward area in which asylum seekers are being housed.

I would only like to know whether your local authority area is currently accommodating asylum seekers in a hotel or hotels, or not.

Response

This information is owned and held by SERCO. Any information of this nature must be supplied by them direct. The contact address is:

generalenquiries@serco.com