I wish to receive the following information under the freedom of information act:

A)   Does your organisation use specific performance   No
      management software?

A2) If the answer to question A is no, how does your   We currently use Excel and Sharepoint, and organisation record performance management   then Power Bi and Tableau to visualise it information?

B)   If applicable, what is the name of the performance   N/A management software used by your organisation?

C)   If applicable, is your performance management software   N/A a bespoke package or an off the shelf application?

D)   What is the job title of the person responsible for   Service Manager performance management within your organisation?   Strategy & Intelligence