

1. Please put 'yes' in the table below if the local authority offers any of the programmes listed. Many of these programmes have numerous different sub-programmes, please put 'yes' if the authority uses any of these.

Programme	Mark 'yes' in this column if the local authority uses ANY modules of the listed programmes
Incredible Years
Baby Parenting
Well-Baby
Toddler Parenting
Attentive Parenting
Preschool Parenting
School Readiness
School Age Parenting
Advanced Parenting
Autism Spectrum and Language Delays
Helping Preschool Children with Autism
Triple P
Triple O Online for Baby
Triple P Online 0-12
Triple P Online	Yes
Teen Triple P Online	Yes
Fear-Less Triple P Online	Yes
Solihull Approach
Antenatal courses
Postnatal courses
Children and Young People	Yes
Teenagers
Adults
Family Links Nurture
Little Talkers
The Nurturing Programme
Talking Teens
Keeping your child in mind
Take 3 Parenting Programme
Talking Tots
Baby Talk 4+ months
Sprites 12+ months
Sprinters 2+ years
Sparklers 3+ years

Strengthening Families Strengthening Communities
Empowering Parents Empowering Communities
Baby and Us
Being a Parent
Living with Teenagers
Being a Parent of a child with autism
Being a Parent of child with ADHD
Being a Parent Together

2. Does the local authority provide any e-learning style parenting skills programmes?

Yes

3. If the local authority does provide any e-learning style parenting skills programmes, what are they called?

Triple P Online, Teen Triple P Online, Fearless Online and One Plus One Parental Conflict Courses

4. How much did the local authority spend on e-learning style parenting courses - including commissioning and licensing costs - in the last fiscal year for which finances are available? Not including courses delivered by Zoom/Microsoft Teams or staffing costs.

9,510 years licence to One Plus One including Train The Trainer
17,978 Triple P codes

5. If an external body delivers parenting skills training on behalf of the local authority, what is their spend on e-learning style parenting courses?

N/A

6. How many parents accessed e-learning parenting skills courses and online parenting skills programmes in the last year for which data is available? Not including those supported via Zoom or Teams. Even if parents didn't complete courses, please do include their initial uptake as attendance.

200

7. Does the local authority collect any feedback on the e-learning style courses delivered?

Yes