

Request

1. Please advise if the council is aware of any instances where persons have been seen begging at traffic lights?
2. And if so, has the council approached them and offered support or help?
3. What is the council doing to prevent people from begging at traffic lights?

Response

I can confirm that Wigan Council have had no reports of begging at traffic lights, and therefore this is a nil return.