STANDARDS COMMITTEE INDEPENDENT PERSONS REQUIRED

Are you interested in local democracy and committed to promoting and maintaining high standards of conduct by Councillors at Wigan Council and Parish Councils.

Wigan Council is committed to high ethical standards and has established a Standards Committee. The Committee consists of 8 Wigan Councillors and 2 Co-opted Parish representatives. We are currently seeking 2 independent persons to assist the Committee and invite applications from individuals who are committed to high ethical standards and can show independent thinking and have the ability to initiate constructive challenge.

What does this role involve?

As an independent member you will gain an insight into how the Council operates. You will be able to use your position to contribute to the fair, efficient and transparent operation of the Code of Conduct and contribute to the promotion of high ethical standards within the Council. The successful candidate(s) will receive a remuneration of £35 per hour and will be appointed for a 3 year term.

Who can apply?

We are looking for people with an interest in local democracy and an ability to assess complicated information and make informed objective decisions. We will particularly welcome applicants with a background in audit or financial management or from the business, voluntary and community sector as well as those with a keen interest in the workings of Local Government.

How can I apply?

For an information pack and application form please contact Diane Adshead, Democratic Services Officer on 01942 827121 or via email at d.adshead@wigan.gov.uk. Please return the completed application by 29 July 2016.
