Council

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, I would like to request the following information relating to advertisement consent applications in your local area.

1. The number of advertisement consent applications received since 1 January 2022 that related to building wraps or scaffold shrouds used for advertising.
2. Of these, how many have been granted and how many refused.
3. For applications that were refused, the most common refusal reasons

The information the Council holds in respect of questions 1 – 3 of this request is accessible via the Council's website at the following link. Please utilise the search function available on this webpage accordingly:
