Council

In relation to the Supreme Court ('the SC') ruling in For Women Scotland vs The Scottish Ministers, which clarified the meaning of 'sex' in the Equality Act 2010 and the EHRC interim guidance:

1. Please let me have copies of any minutes, reports, notes of discussions within the Council (officers, elected members, employees) and with other stakeholders, such as relevant Council funded organisations, in which the Supreme Court Judgement was discussed.
2. Also any information or training documents circulated within the Council arising from your discussions of the Supreme Court Judgement.

The Council hold no minutes, reports or notes of discussion

The Council holds no such information or training documents. The council is awaiting amended guidance from the EHRC and the Local Government association prior to formulating internal policy and guidance
