

Request

1. How many Labour councillors currently live in council houses?

2. Were these council houses acquired after they were elected?

3. Were any of these houses acquired under the right to buy scheme?

Response

The Council does not hold recorded information that answers these questions. The Council does not hold any register, list or report identifying elected members by reference to their tenancy status or housing history. Whilst the Council holds information for separate administrative purposes, it does not hold the requested information in a recorded form. In order to answer the request, the Council would be required to compare information held within separate records and undertake further analysis to create information that is not currently held. Accordingly, under section 1(1)(a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the Council does not hold the information requested.

The Council does not hold recorded information that answers these questions. The Council does not hold any register, list or report identifying elected members by reference to their tenancy status or housing history. Whilst the Council holds information for separate administrative purposes, it does not hold the requested information in a recorded form. In order to answer the request, the Council would be required to compare information held within separate records and undertake further analysis to create information that is not currently held. Accordingly, under section 1(1)(a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the Council does not hold the information requested.

The Council does not hold recorded information that answers these questions. The Council does not hold any register, list or report identifying elected members by reference to their tenancy status or housing history. Whilst the Council holds information for separate administrative purposes, it does not hold the requested information in a recorded form. In order to answer the request, the Council would be required to compare information held within separate records and undertake further analysis to create information that is not currently held. Accordingly, under section 1(1)(a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the Council does not hold the information requested.