Ince-in-Makerfield Urban District Council

File from Ince UDC, survey of residents concerning the Rehousing of Overcrowded Families in Ince.

In the 1920s and 1930s many local authorities sought to improve the living conditions of residents housed in poor quality properties with few amenities. Ince UDC carried out a survey in the mid-1930s to ascertain where families were overcrowded in unsuitable housing, documenting the number of people in each property and the permitted number according to contemporary legislation.

The index below is taken from the survey and lists: the Location of the property, Name of Tenant, Number of people in the Family, Permitted Number of People in the House, and summary Remarks (number of ground floor Living Rooms, LR, and Bedrooms, B)

Reference code, UD/In/D7/4/1
