

Lists of subscriptions to the patriotic fund for the relief of widows and orphans of such of our brave soldiers, sailors, and marines as have fallen, or may hereafter fall, in the present war.

Dootson Collection B361.6

Published in 1855, this document contains lists of subscriptions to the Patriotic Fund from the people of the townships of Astley, Atherton, Bedford, Culcheth, Kenyon, Pennington, Tyldesley and Westleigh. Established in 1854 by Queen Victoria, the objective of the Patriotic Fund was to raise funds for the widows and orphans of the servicemen who had fallen during the Crimean War. Local committees were appointed for each township and representatives canvassed local households. By February 1855, all of the townships had raised over £970.

JAMES POWNALL, TREASURER.

February 2nd, 1855.

the Royal Commission of the Patriotic Fund, Inquiry Office,
Secretary 104, Great George Street, Westminster.

3rd February, 1855.

"The Hon. Secretaries present their Compliments to James Pownall, Esq., and beg to acknowledge the receipt of his favour of the 2nd Inst., intimating that the sum of Nine Hundred and Seventy Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Seven-Pence has been contributed in aid of the Patriotic Fund, by the Inhabitants of the several Townships therein named—and that the same has been ordered to be paid, per Messrs. Smith, Payne & Co., and they request he will convey their grateful thanks to all engaged in this act of benevolence."
